MICHAEL F. EASLEY
GOVERNOR

FAIR HOUSING MONTH

2007

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, April 2007 marks the 39th anniversary of the Federal Fair Housing Act of 1968 and the 24th anniversary of the State Fair Housing Act; and

WHEREAS, the State Fair Housing Act of 1983 and the Federal Fair Housing Act of 1968 prohibit discrimination in housing because of "race, color, religion, sex, national origin, handicapping condition and familial status"; and

WHEREAS, one of the most important concerns of North Carolina individuals and families is the availability of decent and affordable housing; and

WHEREAS, the North Carolina Human Relations Commission, through its coordinated efforts with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, county and local governments, fair housing organizations, and concerned citizens of the housing industry, continues to strive toward promoting broader housing choice in North Carolina, promoting understanding of the State Fair Housing Act and the Federal Fair Housing Act, encouraging integrated communities and/or neighborhoods, securing compliance with state and federal fair housing laws, eliminating discrimination in housing, and punishing those who violate the State's Fair Housing Act;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MICHAEL F. EASLEY, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim April 2007, as "FAIR HOUSING MONTH" in North Carolina and encourage our citizens to rededicate themselves to ensuring that fair housing laws are always upheld and that citizens are protected against discrimination.
